

GATEWAY MISSIONS

August/September 2022

Connecting People, Nations and Continents for the Great Commission

So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18

Unexpected Miracles!

Most of you are aware that on July 4, Gary had quadruple bypass surgery. It was quite sudden and we were stunned. Although we didn't have time to process it all, we believe God divinely intervened through a series of events and doctors' visits to put him with the right surgeon in Lubbock Heart Hospital.

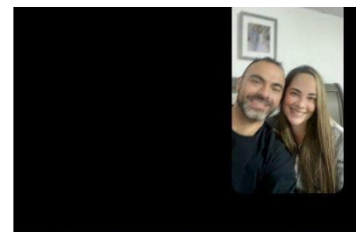

According to the surgeon, Gary's heart is strong. Thursday, August 4 will be a month since the event happened and Gary is healing well and getting stronger every day. He is making changes in his diet and we go walking every day. Gary says, "Jane Ann has been a lifeline to my recovery and keeps me moving." Knowing God is supernaturally working to heal him and that you, our friends, partners and prayer warriors, have us covered gives us strength and hope!

We offer our heartfelt thanks to each one who has called, prayed, sent food/gift cards, visited and served us during this time. It is difficult to fully express our gratitude, except to say how humbled we are by your love and care.

What Now?

Our Gateway Missions Board of Directors has given their approval to suspend any ministry activity until Gary is fully recovered in 4-6 months. We are keeping in touch with most of our international leaders through emails, texts, Facebook and video chats to encourage them to persevere and know that we have not forgotten them. Pictured at right are Leo and Silvana Grisales, Pursue Missions Partners and church planters of Dios Con Nosotros in Tampa, Florida.

Thank you once again, friends and partners, for your prayers and understanding as we continue through this healing season.

Ukrainian Refugees in Transnistria

Below: Refugees gather wood to prepare for a difficult winter and recent message from our friend, a pastor/leader in Eastern Europe near Ukraine.

Hello dear Pastor Gary and Jane Ann,

We send our love. We are now relatively safe. Nothing extraordinary happens in Transnistria. Only everywhere there are blockades with the military with masks on their faces. We also continue to provide all possible assistance to refugees. We distribute food, clothes, and medicines. Refugees began to realize that the war would last for a long time and now they need to legalize their status in Moldova. A refugee mother and daughter live in our house with us. When they fled they were let through the border despite the absence of some documents. Now that it has become clear that the de-occupation of their city from the Russian army will not happen soon. Refugees began to look for work, and for this they need to make all the documents, including a residence permit in Moldova. We are assisting them in this matter as well. And these are trips to Chisinau and sitting in lines to all possible bureaucrats. I think that the situation with refugees will get worse by autumn and especially in winter. Most likely Russia will turn off the gas. And Europe has a big shortage of gas, but even if they sell it to Moldova, the price will be too high. I understand that it is time for us to start stocking up on firewood and coal. Otherwise, many families will suffer greatly in winter. This is our story.

Cuba: Pastor Adrian and Yailyn

Gateway Missions is praying about a trip to Cuba, possibly in early 2023. We have visited with a few of our key pastors there and they tell us how much they appreciate the financial resources we send, which are greatly needed. However, they are starving for face to face relationships and hands on ministry. Pray with us for God's perfect timing and provision as we look ahead to this open door opportunity.

In a recent message from Pastor Adrian, he writes, "God always manages to send just what we need. You are always welcome here and we are waiting for you and your team to return when God finishes healing you."

Run the race,

Gary and Jane Ann Casey
