

GATEWAY MISSIONS

November 2019

Connecting People, Nations and Continents for the Great Commission

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.”

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

Hungry Hearts

Jane Ann and I want to take this opportunity to commend and thank you for being such a strategic part of Gateway Missions. Our mission vision is to train, equip and encourage pastoral leaders wherever God opens doors for us to go, and that would not be possible without you. Your prayers, giving and even more importantly, your friendship strengthens us in our calling. These words, HUNGRY HEARTS, resonate in our spirits! We see firsthand the need to be advocates for pastors and church leaders who are HUNGRY to receive training and to know God has not forgotten them. How reassuring it is to them to have real people invest in them. They are renewed Spiritually, Physically and Emotionally as we spend time with them. Countless pastors have come to our conferences ready to abandon their call because they are so disheartened. But as we love, pray, mentor and minister to them, the Holy Spirit moves supernaturally to revive their hearts. The scripture above makes it clear that we are to comfort others in need just as He has comforted us. Thank you again for your mission's heart to give and your desire to see Jesus lifted up, which makes it possible for Gateway Missions to serve the hidden heroes, men and women, who courageously proclaim the gospel throughout the nations.

Happy Birthday

Happy Birthday to my wonderful wife, Jane Ann. We have been together over 50 years and have been blessed to minister together in some very interesting places in the world. We share a passion to be participants, serving as Kingdom Workers to see the Great Commission fulfilled. We were both 27 years old when God saved us and rescued us from destruction. God has been very good to us. In fact, He has been exceedingly, abundantly good and gracious to us beyond our greatest imaginations!

Please join me in wishing this woman of God, wife, mother, grandmother and my best friend a very Happy Birthday!

Matching Challenge for 2019!

We are excited to share the news with you about Gateway Missions Matching Challenge! A few of our generous partners have made a Matching Challenge commitment until December 31st of $20,000! That means for every dollar contributed, above your regular giving, it will be DOUBLED. That is a great way to invest in this ministry! We have gained abundant favor with the pastors wherever we go, and along with that there are greater opportunities to increase the Gospel's impact through GATEWAY MISSIONS.

We are inviting you to participate and to contribute in order to help us meet this challenge. We are persuaded that your missions gift will accomplish these objectives:

- Enable Gateway Missions to continue to GO with the GOSPEL.
- Help Pastors and Church Leaders continue to receive much needed training and equipping.
- Sow a blessing into God's Kingdom and you will be blessed.
- Give an investment that is eternal.

Remember when you give, your gift will be doubled. We have enclosed a self-addressed MATCHING CHALLENGE envelope for your convenience.
