Connecting People, Nations and Continents for the Great Commission

“Come and see the breathtaking wonders of our God. For He brings both ruin and revival. He’s the one who makes conflicts end throughout the earth.” Psalm 46:8-9 (TPT)

FLEXABILITY

In the last two years since the COVID Pandemic began, how we “view” and “do” missions has drastically changed. Virtually every ministry has reinvented itself to remain viable. We look at this challenge as a good thing, since without change we can become complacent or stagnant. This paradigm shift has, for the most part, been a clarion call to see from God’s perspective and to renew our vision and methods of fulfilling the Great Commission. “Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Matthew 28:19-20 (NIV) When we look into God’s Word, we see many instances where the disciples experienced delay or were redirected to be obedient to their call. That is why we must remain flexible. Flexibility has always been an essential element of our mission mantra. It is a crucial component in the success of Gateway Missions and our unwavering mission to proclaim the Gospel. What we have viewed as detractions or delays have taken us in a different direction than we would have ever chosen. However at this time, using internet for ZOOM meetings is proving to be the better choice for us instead of air travel to onsite conferences. “Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.” Isaiah 43:19 (ESV) How wonderful and true is this promise! Thank you for your prayers and financial support of Gateway Missions. You have impacted our lives and ministry to the nations through your loving encouragement and generous giving.

PAKISTAN

In the last two months we have been blessed with the opportunity to minister in two ZOOM meetings in Lahore and Karachi, Pakistan. As I preached the Word of God, I was moved with joy and compassion to see the hunger and excitement of the congregation. The Holy Spirit is not constrained by time or space and moves where and however He chooses.

COLORADO

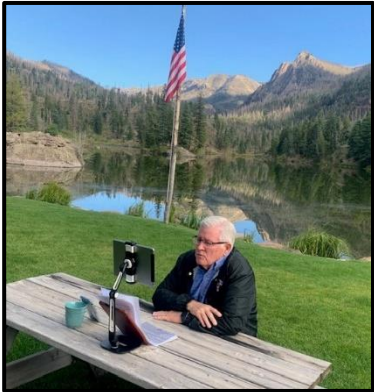

Gary and I had a wonderful time with my brother Mark and sister-in-law Phyllis. They hosted us at their home on Born Lake Ranch. We enjoyed fellowshiping with them (as usual) while we relaxed and basked in the beauty (mountains, lake, waterfalls) of San Juan National Forest. We appreciated their hospitality and the peaceful atmosphere as we laughed, cried and prayed together. It was a week of being refreshed and renewed!

COLOMBIA

While we were in Colorado, Gary spoke twice (via ZOOM) for the Impact Pastor’s Conference in Medellin, where we usually have our yearly gathering. Hopefully, we can return in person next year to be with the pastors for face-to-face and hands on ministry.

TIRASPOL, TRANSNISTRIA

Due to scheduling conflicts, flight changes, COVID restrictions and after wise counsel, we postponed our trip to Tiraspol. It will be rescheduled as restrictions ease up. We are sending funds to Pastor Yuri to help with a building project which will provide adequate space so the church can meet government requirements for larger gatherings during the pandemic. They continue to move forward building God’s Kingdom in Transnistria.

Run the race,

Gary and Jane Ann Casey

Look! Here He comes! The Lord and judge of all the earth! He’s coming to make things right and to do it fair and square. And everyone will see that He does all things well!
